TAX VALUATION GUIDE FOR DONATED GOODS

OBTAIN A RECEIPT

MAKE A LIST

TAKE PICTURES

Tax law now requires that all household items given to a charity be in good or better condition. Those questionable items you donated in previous years and claimed were worth a few dollars because they were in "Fair" condition are no longer acceptable.

The following list will give you an idea of what your donated clothing and household goods are worth. It indicates fair market value for some common items as suggested in the Salvation Army's Valuation Guide.

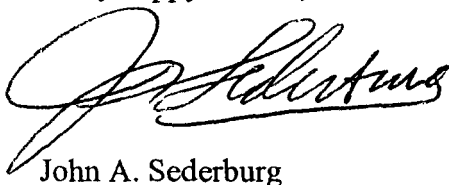

Use the worksheets below to record your contributions. Include this list showing the total value of your donations, with your records we will use to prepare your tax return.

Obtain a receipt from the charity that received your donated goods. Make your list. You will need to put a dollar value for each line item and compute a total of all items. A reasonable value for good items is the average of the low and the high. If low is $10.00 and high is $20.00 use $15.00 ($10 + 20 = 30$ divided by 2). Stack your donated items and take a picture.

If you make a single donation of $250.00 or more you will need a receipt or written acknowledgement of your gift from the qualified charitable organization.

If you donate a car you may receive a better deduction if you donate it to a charity that does not resell it. Ask us for the details.

Many happy returns,

John A. Sederburg
